The following web sites are library subscriptions only.
They are already bookmarked on each computer in the Genealogy Department.

- 19th Century U.S. Newspaper Digital Archive
- AncestryIreland.com (Please ask staff for password)
- Ancestry Library Edition- ProQuest
- Books-in-Print - Lists books currently available for purchase. Your request can be searched by author, title, subject and keyword.
- Early Canadiana Plus - Canadian local history
- French Canadian Genealogy prior to 1850 (PDRH)
- Genealogical & Biographical Master Index to an extensive collection of biographical materials such as Who's Who, Obituaries on File, biographical encyclopedias, etc.
- HeritageQuest Online (ProQuest) * (Also available for home access to Indian River County Library Card holders. Your library card number is the 'barcode.')
- They have an extensive database of Genealogy and Local History Books of over 20,000 family and local histories and is accessible by keywords. In addition, any book you find can be printed out or saved to disk. This resource can only be found in libraries and is not available to individuals. Also available is PERSI (Periodical Source Index). Index to Revolutionary War soldiers pensions and the Freedman's Bank Records (1865-1874)
- New England Historic Genealogical Society Numerous resources can be found in this database such as: the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, 1847-1994, Atlases and Maps Census, Tax and Voters Lists, Cemeteries, Church Records, Court Records, Diaries and Journals, Genealogy and Biography, Heraldry, Immigration, Land Records, Military, Newspapers and Periodicals, Probate Records, Vital Records, Societies and Organizations
- New York Times 1857-200? Keyword accessible. Have you been trying to find information about a mining accident that happened in West Virginia? Do you need information about an event that happened in 1870 England? How about a marriage, obituary or wedding announcement from New York? I was able to find wedding announcements for people living in Vero Beach. There is arrival of passenger ships that includes a listing of some of the passengers, most often the first class. This is a great and wonderful new resource to add to your list genealogy resources to check out.
- Obituaries & Death Notices - (NewsBank)
- ProQuest Obituaries - Atlanta Journal Constitution; Boston Globe; Chicago Defender; Chicago Tribune; Los Angeles Times, New York Times; Washington Post
- OriginsNetwork.Com - British, Irish & Scots
- Swedish Archives and Census 1870, 1880, 1890, 1900
- Swedish Church Records, etc. (Genline)
