

COMMEMORATION WEEK OF 1715 FLEET DISASTER BUS TOUR REGISTRATION

The Indian River County Libraries proudly present the 300th Commemoration of the loss of the 1715 Fleet through this exciting bus tour. The tour will consist of a journey that passes by shipwreck sites, explores museums (The McLarty Museum and The Mel Fisher Museum) and also enjoying a lunch at Captain Hiram's. Our guest narrator will be Margaret Weller aka Margaret "Lady Goldiver" Weller. Margaret was the wife of well-known Bob "Frogfoot" Weller who passed away in 2008. Margaret has been diving and salvaging the 1715 Spanish Fleet since 1978.

Date: Thursday, July 30th, 2015

Time of Arrival: 8:30 a.m. at the front parking lot of the Indian River County Main Library (parking in rear of Library or in the parking garage south of the Library).

Departure time: 9:00 a.m. from the front of the Indian River County Main Library.

Tour schedule: Drive by shipwreck sites. Visit the McLarty and Mel Fisher Museums. Lunch at Captain Hiram's (at your own cost; menus will be provided).

Return time: 4 p.m. to the front parking lot of the Indian River County Main Library.

Cost: $55 payable by check or cash. Make checks payable to "Friends of IRC Main Library" and on the memo line write 1715 Fleet tour. Cost includes handout, bus transportation, tour, and Museum entrances.

Additional Information: Comfortable walking shoes recommended! If you can, please bring cash for your lunch to help us get to the next stop on time.

Contact information: Indian River County Main Library, 1600 21st Street, Vero Beach, FL 32960
772-770-5060 ext. 5 or 4130 or genealogy@irclibrary.org

Who knows...you might find something on your journey!

✂ Patron Information-please return this section with payment

To: Indian River County Main Library, 1600 21st Street, Vero Beach, Florida 32960
Archive Center, 2nd Floor

PASSENGER #1:

PASSENGER #2:

ADDRESS:

PHONE NUMBER:

EMAIL ADDRESS:

PAYMENT METHOD: (CIRCLE) CHECK or CASH

Make checks payable to "Friends of IRC Main Library"

Limited to 50 people