

SAM AND SEAJAY MILNER

WRITER AND ILLUSTRATOR

Sam was born in Spartanburg, S.C. in May of 1949 and moved to the nearby Western North Carolina mountains at the age of 6. In high school he performed music as a member of a 4 piece combo, The Mandarin. As a high school senior at Reynolds High School near Asheville, he wrote and compiled a short weekly sports column in the Asheville Citizen newspaper. While attending Montreat-Anderson Junior College he entertained at college coffee houses singing folk music. From 1975-1977 he traveled and performed with the musical group, The Lariat Sam Band. He began his solo musical and songwriting career in 1978 and has gone on to record 9 CDs and 1 DVD, while writing some 500 songs and several hundred poems. Sam started his music publishing company, Town Mountain Music, in 1985 and established his recording label, Driving Records, in 1993. Sam and his wife Seajay, live on the Florida coast where they continue to travel and perform their music. Sam has written 6 treasure mystery books and several other southern culture books. Seajay creates and sells her art and illustrates Sam's books.

Books are available on Amazon.com as Kindle Editions

Prices range from: $6.25-$6.95

Emails: songweaversam@gmail.com

seajayart27@gmail.com