

DANIEL FRANK SEDWICK

COIN EXPERT

Daniel Frank Sedwick is a full-time dealer specializing in the colonial coinage of Spanish America as well as shipwreck coins and artifacts of all nations and founder and President of Daniel Frank Sedwick, LLC. He has been a licensed Florida Auctioneer since 2007. In addition to publishing several online and auction catalogs per year, Mr. Sedwick is also a regular vendor at major international coin shows. Until early 1996, Daniel worked in partnership with the late Dr. Frank Sedwick, who began the business in 1981 and became known as a pioneer in the field of Spanish colonial numismatics with his book, "The practical books of cobs". The 4th (2007) and 3rd (1995) editions of this well-known book were authored and co-authored by Daniel, who is also a contributing editor for "Krause-Mishler's standard catalog of world coins (century editions)" and "The numismatist" (the monthly magazine of the American Numismatic Association) and the author of several articles.
